Following the guidelines of the Dutch government regarding the global Covid-19 outbreak the 2020 edition of Movies that Matter Festival is cancelled. This means that the presentation of The One Minutes Jr. Awards 2020 on March 27 at Movies that Matter cannot take place at the festival in The Hague. In consultation with Movies that Matter, we have decided to continue The One Minutes Jr. Awards 2020 online. The jurymembers – Mijke de Jong, Kaweh Modiri and Dennis Overeem – will announce the winners on March 27.

You are invited to join us on social media, where the nominees from Eritrea, Lebanon, Myanmar, the Netherlands, Nigeria, Palestine, South Korea and Syria will be featured.

The jury members for The One Minutes Jr. Awards 2020 are filmmaker Mijke de Jong (BlueBird, Frailer, Layla M.), Kaweh Modiri, filmmaker (Bodkin Ras) and writer (Meneer Sadek en de Anderen) and actor Dennis Overeem, co-founder of The Buddy Film Project helping refugee filmmakers building a network in the Dutch film industry.

The One Minutes Jr. Awards 2020 is made possible with the support of Movies That Matter. The production of works in the competition was supported by UNICEF, Korea International Cooperation Agency (KOICA), de Vrolijkheid - The National Foundation for the Promotion of Happiness, Central Agency for the Reception of Asylum Seekers (COA) and City of Amsterdam.

Movies That Matter Festival uses the power of film to promote human rights and social justice.
